Nayak believes in a vision of giving equal opportunity to all his team members to excel in their respective fields.

Very few successful businessmen like Mr. Nayak are not only been able to pursue their hobbies but also excel in that field. Mr. Nayak's journey into the classical music field started at an early age of nine, under the able guidance of Late Shri Pannalal Gandharva followed by Late Shri Pranlal Shah. Today, Mr. Nayak is "Sangeet Visharad" in Classical music and is currently doing "Gayaki in Agra Atroli Gharana" under Ustad Saukat Hussian Khan (s/o Late Ustad Sarafad Hussian Khan).

Mr. Nayak regularly takes time off from his busy schedule for his practice as he firmly believes that practice makes man strive towards perfection. Mr. Nayak gave his first vocal performance at the Saptak Stage Festival a platform he now shares with India's leading and well-known artists performing at the same stage. During his Sangeet Sadhana, he has been awarded with many medals and trophies. Mr. Nayak gives some of the credit to his achievements to NSS (National Social Services) where he has learnt the basics of leadership, responsibilities towards the society, humbleness and NCC (National CadetCorps) for molding his life as regards to temperament and discipline.

For above all, he firmly believes in the values and culture that has been inculcated in him by all his family members since his childhood. He also attributes his Success to the constant encouragement and support given by his Guru, Parents, Family members including his wife and his daughter. Mr. Nayak believes that success is a journey and one constantly needs to improve from the suggestions and feedback from experts. He may probably inspire youngsters, today's busy Business Professionals to pursue hobby seriously and give life a new dimension.
