

Study in Australia / Student Visa for Australia

In abroad education Australian education plays a main role in creating world class talent. The education and research norms of Australia plan to give quality education and meet the worldwide models in encouraging the universal students with the world class foundation. There are over 1200 educational institutions that offer more than 22000 courses to the students. Students from several countries come here to study and settle in the beautiful land called Australia. The immense land Australia adopted English as its language and there are numerous countries that have ties to share the platform of education with the Australia. The Australian education system is robust and the law of the land promotes quality education.

The below mentioned are the reasons to Study in Australia:

- Excellent education system
- Accessibility of scope of courses from school to postgraduate degrees
- Presence of many specialist institutions
- Australian qualifications are acknowledged worldwide
- Innovative teaching and learning methods utilized
- Nature of logical research
- Awesome help rendered to international students
- Safe environment
- Multicultural society

Benefits of study in Australia

- The world's smallest continent and sixth largest country by total area
- Australia Ranked third in the index of Economic Freedom
- Australia has 6 states and 2 self governing territories
- Education system recognized worldwide with wide variety of program
- Vibrant Country with a young population.
- Booming economy with opportunities in all the sectors
- Rich in mineral resources and Economy doesn't affected by world economy
- Demand for skilled people.
- World class Universities with good infrastructure and facilities

Why Study in Australia:

- Government funded Universities
- Duration for the masters courses in between 1.5 to 2 yrs
- Competitive cost for tuitions and living in comparison to other developed countries
- Australian education is recognized worldwide
- High standard of education, good research facilities available with state of the art equipment.
- Institutions in Australia offer a wide variety of course and degrees
- Australia has the third largest international student enrollment behind the USA and the UK

Education System in Australia:

The Australian qualifications framework (AQF) was designed by the Australian Government to make sure those Australian qualifications are the same throughout the country and that they represent the same high standard of education. Education System is broadly divided in University and vocational Education.

University offer: Bachelors Masters (Work /Research) Post Graduation PhDs

TAFES offer: Diplomas Advanced Diplomas Associate Degree

College offer: Certificate courses Diploma courses

Eligibility: Masters, Bachelors, IELTS-6.0 to 7.0 Bachelor: 10+2, IELTS-5.5 to 6.0

